You’ll find plenty of epic experiences in Wales’ biggest and best seaside resort. Here are some to get you started.

Pull up a deckchair and watch the world go by on our beautiful beaches – there are two to choose from. Dip your feet in the surf or head out to sea on a boat trip around the bay.

Or explore a very different side of Llandudno on the Great Orme, the resort’s own rugged mini-mountain. Get to the top by vintage tram or high-wire cable car (or on foot if you’re feeling energetic). Go back in time at the Bronze Age Copper Mines or focus on the here and now and zip downhill at Llandudno Ski and Snowboard Centre.

Delve into history at places like Llandudno Museum and the Home Front Experience, an immersive recreation of life in Britain during the Second World War. Or indulge in some retail therapy in our canopied shopping streets, arcades and modern Parc Llandudno. Between them, they offer the biggest and best shopping in North Wales, with everything from chic boutiques and antique emporiums to seaside souvenir stalls and all the familiar high street names.

Catch a show at Venue Cymru or enjoy one of the many festivals and special events taking place throughout the year.

Don’t forget!

While you’re here, visit Llandudno’s Tourist Information Centre in the Victoria Centre on Mostyn Street. The friendly staff can help you with things like booking tickets and planning itineraries. And, if you haven’t already found somewhere to stay, they can help you choose from our great range of accommodation, too. Just remember, the longer you stay, the more time you’ll have to enjoy Llandudno!
NORTH SHORE & PROMENADE
There’s never a dull moment at the North Shore! All the best old-fashioned ways to enjoy our beautiful coast are here. Punch and Judy shows, donkey rides on the sand, ice cream on the pier, live music from the bandstand. Not forgetting falling asleep in your deckchair! Plus, a play area, paddling pool and snacks at the Prom’s east end.

LLANDUDNO TOWN BAND Map Ref:D7
Still blowing strong after over 100 years. The band perform live from the bandstand every Sunday with Songs of Praise, and Monday a concert of popular music. During 2018 the concerts will take place from 28 May until 27 August from 7.30pm to 8.30pm. (Weather permitting). More details available on the bandstand.

BIG SHIP LTD Map Ref:C6
The Jetty, North Shore, Llandudno 01492 877458
Hop aboard one of the speedboats and whiz by the Great and Little Ormes in a blur of spray and salt. Great fun! Open from Easter to the end of September (weather permitting).

LLANDUDNO LAND TRAIN Map Ref:C5
North Shore, Llandudno 01492 877458
Few modes of transport raise more smiles, from both passengers and passers-by, than the Llandudno Land Train. The urge to wave to the crowds, as the multi-coloured engine ‘chuffs’ its way between the North and West Shore, is too much to resist. Also one hour trips around the Marine Drive. Runs from Easter to October.

PROFESSOR CODMAN’S PUNCH AND JUDY Map Ref:C5
07900 555515
The Codman family has been performing this firm seaside favourite for over 150 years next to the pier on the North Shore Promenade. Daily shows take place at weekends and school holidays (weather permitting) between Easter and September. Performances are at 2pm and 4pm and also at 12.30pm during the height of the season and on Bank Holidays. Additional performances for school parties by arrangement.

WEST SHORE
Llandudno’s quieter shore has play areas for children and adults too. Plus a pond perfect for model boats. Look out across the mouth of the Conwy Estuary to see some of the best views around, and (if your timing’s good) the most spectacular sunsets.

WHAT’S NOT TO LOVE ABOUT LLANDUDNO?
Our range of attractions is a big hit with families. Take a boat trip around the Great Orme, see the sights from an open top bus and get to know the animals at Bodafon Farm. For a spot of nostalgia, take a ride on the Great Orme Tramway. Or in complete contrast, discover the Alice in Wonderland connection to Llandudno through two exciting town trail apps.
ALICE IN WONDERLAND

It seems fitting that a magical story like Alice in Wonderland is closely associated with Llandudno. Its author, Lewis Carroll was inspired by a real Alice, Alice Liddell. The Liddell family first came to Llandudno in 1861 staying at the St Tudno Hotel. They liked the area so much that they had a house built on the West Shore and Alice spent many childhood summers here. The family were friends with Charles Dodgson, better known as Lewis Carroll.

THE ALICE TRAILS

Two exciting town trail apps have been developed – the White Rabbit and the Alice’s Looking Glass. These amazing 3D digital experiences allow you to follow Alice’s adventures through Wonderland. For those not so techy there’s a town trail map and souvenir guide, and the entire trail is easy to navigate – simply follow the White Rabbit’s bronze footprints throughout Llandudno.

The medieval castle themed soft play area is a riot of ball pools, slides and plenty of climbing opportunities. Open daily from 10am to 6pm.
GREAT OUTDOORS
Get out and about for a piece of the action. A leisurely afternoon on the golf course, something for the whole family to enjoy, or extreme sports to really get the pulse racing. There are so many ways to be adventurous, indoors and outdoors, on the water or on dry land. And Llandudno is a great base for exploring Snowdonia’s mountains and coast, too.

SO WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR?

SHORE FISHING
You can fish from the shore at Colwyn Bay, Rhos on Sea, Llandudno, Deganwy, Conwy, Penmaenmawr and Llanfairfechan.

SEA ANGLING
Take a trip on a charter vessel with an experienced skipper (weather permitting, of course!). Depending on the season you can fish inshore for whiting, codling, bass, mackerel and more. Or venture further out for pollock, cod, conger and coalfish. Further information available locally.

KITE SURFING AND BUGGYING
On the North Wales Coast we’re lucky to have lots of big sandy beaches. Just right for kite surfing and buggying. The beach at West Shore has a dedicated launch as well as flying and landing areas.

YOUR NEXT BIG ADVENTURE
PEDAL POWER
National Cycle Route 5 is its official name, but we know it better as the coastal bike ride between Llanfairfechan and Kinmel Bay. Most of the route is traffic free, and you can join at various points along the way. It’s one of the greenest ways to see our coastline and countryside. Pick up a copy of the Conwy Cycle Route Map from Conwy or Llandudno Tourist Information Centres or download from conwy.gov.uk
